WHY: One of the Pittsburgh’s most historic organizations is turning 50. The Homer S. Brown Division was initially founded in 1969 as the Black Lawyers of Western Pennsylvania. It was subsequently renamed the Homer S. Brown Law Association to honor Pittsburgh’s first African-American judge, and in 2011 it joined the ACBA and became the Homer S. Brown Division. Since its inception, HSBD has served as an advocate and ally for African-American lawyers and members of the Black Community in Allegheny County. This event will celebrate the organization’s continuing legacy in the Pittsburgh area.
