For CLEs the PA CLE Guidelines require the use of written materials for all seminars. The ACBA suggests you provide at least 25-30 pages per credit hour; a PowerPoint deck is acceptable. Company/firm logos are not permitted throughout a PowerPoint presentation or supplemental handouts. Presenters are permitted one slide/page at the end of their materials that includes their contact information/logo.

Materials must be submitted to the CLE department five (5) business days prior to the program date. The Program Planner is responsible for collecting all written materials and then emailing a complete set of materials to the CLE Department for distribution. They can be sent via email to cdaub@acba.org. Materials will not be printed. They will be distributed electronically to all program attendees at least 24 hours in advance of the program.

For Lunch-n-Learns and Skills Trainings, there are no requirements for written materials. You should provide at least a 1-page outline, no more than 30 pages per hour.
